5. Voting procedures for the board of trustees meetings and the criteria for a quorum are established in Section 87A-11, HRS.

(a) Votes are to be counted as follows: After a motion is made and seconded, the presiding officer shall read the motion and open the question to discussion and debate by the trustees. When ready to put the motion to a vote, the presiding officer will then call for the employer and employee-beneficiary votes to determine whether there are three votes from each trustee group in favor of the motion. If so, the motion will be recorded as having been approved by one vote from the employer trustees and one vote from the employee-beneficiary trustees. For routine or procedural matters, the presiding officer may simply ask if there is any opposition to a motion after it has been made, and to the extent required, seconded and debated. If no opposition is voiced, the motion will be recorded as having been unanimously approved by one vote from the employer trustees and one vote from the employee-beneficiary trustees.

(b) If the voting is not unanimous by each side, the names of the trustees who voted in favor of the motion, voted against the motion, or abstained from voting will be recorded in the minutes.
